Riding to glory against all odds Akanksha Grabs Silver At Equestrian championship

Bhopal: Thursday was a red letter day for 18-year-old Akanksha as she won her maiden silver in open back event of Madhya Pradesh equestrian championship. As she took to the victory podium to receive the medal, tears rolled down her cheeks. Riding "Speed Star", the MP equestrian academy rider overcame all odds to claim silver. "I wish to forget my pain, and make the best of what God has given to me," said Akanksha her voice choked with emotion. "Congratulations Akanksha, sports minister Vasudhara Singh said, "The way our riders have performed is really impressive. I think such medal winning performers will encourage and motivate others."
